

Information for Posting of Senior Pastor

Hales Chapel Baptist Church is seeking a full time Senior Pastor who loves the Lord and who is called by God to our church in Zebulon, NC. Our church has an average Sunday attendance of approximately 100. Hales Chapel desires to grow in the Word and to glorify God through reaching the lost and teaching the saved. We desire a missions oriented pastor who will shepherd the congregation while speaking the entire truth of the Bible through expository preaching and one who seeks to glorify God in all he does. Prior ministry and/or theological education experience in a Baptist setting is preferred.

Why come to Hales Chapel Baptist Church?

Hales Chapel Baptist Church is blessed to be a special body in an exceptional location. Our church is located in one of North Carolina's fastest growing communities. Our prayer is to engage this growing population with the Gospel of Jesus Christ and be the faithful witness scripture calls us to be. Our congregation is made up largely of families who have served faithfully for generations at HCBC through ministries for all age groups. Our church has been blessed with faithful giving which has led to a stable financial profile with budgets to support a multitude of ministries both at HCBC and around the world. We have ever improving facilities to meet the needs of our congregation and land to expand with our growing community. Hales Chapel is a leader in our community being closely involved in the activities of our local schools, community organizations, and civic institutions. HCBC is in a unique location with our proximity to and relationships within Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary and encourage our staff to take advantage by furthering their education.
